Nature Protected by Women

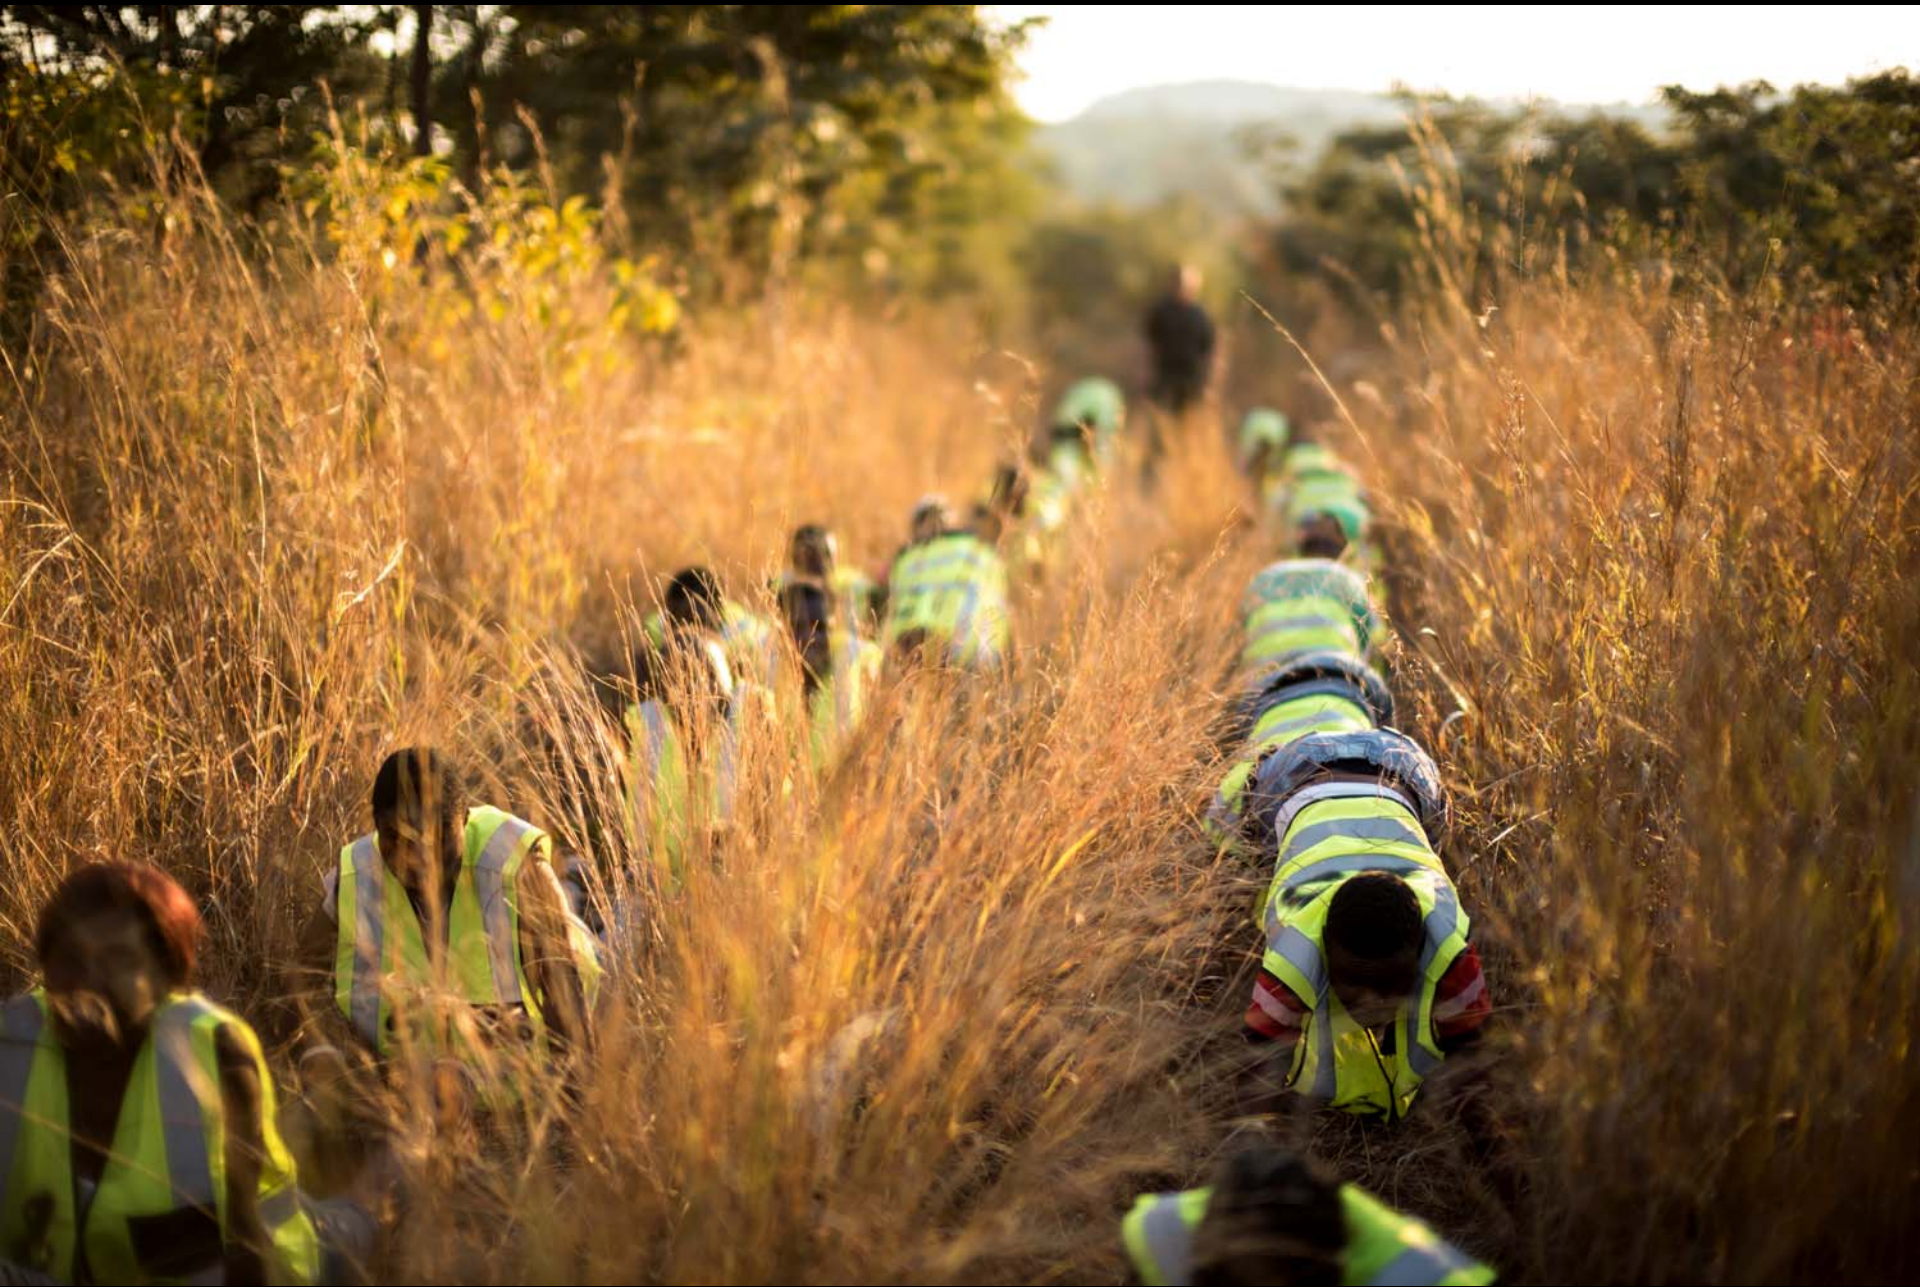

A close-up portrait of Kofi Annan, showing his eyes, nose, and a grey beard. He is looking directly at the camera with a slight smile. The background is a plain, light blue-grey color.

“There is no tool for development more effective than the empowerment
of women.”

Kofi Annan

Former UN Secretary General

“When we put local communities at the heart of conservation, we improve the lives of people, animals, and the environment.”
